

AEO Uruguay

AEO a bet to regional and global market integration

The AEO Department of the uruguayan Customs Administration - committed to the new trends in world trade and seeking to provide operators with competitive logistic opportunities, is developing multiple initiatives to reach Mutual Recognition Agreements (MRAs) with other customs administration.

For this purpose as a previous step to the signature of MRAs it began developing important agreements as Safety Supply Chains with strategic partners.

BRAZIL Pilot Agreement on Safety Supply Chain with Uruguay

By this agreement both countries continue to advance with planification, so as to start the pilot program in the 2015 second semester.

ARGENTINA "Bilateral Agreement for the implementation of Pilot Program Intra-Mercosur Customs Security in the Supply Chain"

After a survey in border points conducted by both customs administrations selected companies for commercial national chains participate in this pilot program it is subsequent bilateral implementation.

PANAMA Memorandum of Understanding between the National Customs of Uruguay and the National Customs Authority of Panama.

The signing of an understanding Memorandum between both administrations is has been agreed.

Is planned to be performed during the XVIII Regional Conference of Customs of the Americas and the Caribbean in Puerto Natales, Chile, scheduled for April 2015. The objective for the signing of this Memorandum is based on technical assistance for AEO programs in both countries through the exchange of best practices acquired in order to lay the foundation for harmonizing customs regimes in search of promoting mutual recognition.

MEXICO Memorandum of Understanding between the National Customs of Uruguay and the General Administration of Customs of United States of MEXICO on institutional cooperation and technical assistance.

Both customs are developing a Memorandum of Understanding to start harmonizing both programs.

Currently this memorandum is under consideration by the US Customs of Mexico, Uruguay has already delivered a draft.

A work plan which will include exchange of technical assistance between the two organizations will be developed.

BOLIVIA

In January 2015 a videoconference led by the National Director of Customs, Cr. Enrique Canon, took place in order to initiate the links between both countries and lay the groundwork to start a Draft Safety Supply Chain in order to sign an MRA in the future.

The signature of a bilateral assistance agreement has been accorded as well as the conformation of a joint working agenda.

NEW CERTIFIED COMPANIES

In December 2014 new certificates were given to two companies who have met the highest safety standards in customs operations, complying with the requirements of the AEO Program.

19/12/2014: JAUME Y SERÉ LTDA. CUSTOMS BROKER WITH INTERNATIONALLY HISTORY

23/12/2014: CRISTALPET SA: IMPORT / EXPORT COMPANY, WHICH MANUFACTURES PET PREFORM INJECTION AND RETURNABLE AND NON-RETURNABLE BOTTLES BY BLOWING PROCESS.

UPCOMING EVENTS

- February 4 – February 6 Pilot Bilateral Meeting Security Supply Chain Uruguay - Brazil to be held in Brasilia - Brazil.

OEC NEWS

- 6 companies in certification process.
- More than 20 companies interested in participating in the program and working on the implementation of the requirements AEO procedures.

TRAINING IN FIGURES

